JMV Management Services Launches New Operating Divisions

JMV Management Services has announced the creation of three new operating divisions: HR Experts On DemandSM, Strategic HR AlliancesSM, and CFO Services On DemandSM.

HR Experts On Demand provides senior-level yet practical human resources management and consulting services to small business and nonprofit organizations, which increase employee productivity and reduce business risk. It will focus on six key service areas: legal compliance, recruiting & selection, employee relations, performance management, compensation management and HR Director On CallSM. Strategic HR Alliances will develop strategic relationships with other service providers in the HR industry through referral programs, joint marketing arrangements and private label branded services. CFO Services on Demand will provide part-time CFO and internal financial reporting and analysis services.

According to Jill Vales, President of JMV Management, the two new HR-related divisions will be branded using a new logo, which consist of six stacked blocks representing the six key HR service areas; it also resembles an organization chart. "The new logo symbol communicates the firm's belief that strong human resources practices are the building blocks of great organizations," Vales says.

The firm's new Web sites are HRExpertsOnDemand.com, StrategicHRAlliances.com and CFOServicesOnDemand.com.

"These organizational changes represent a significant milestone in the firm's evolution," Vales says. "And, it further signifies our commitment to becoming the most respected human resources consulting firm serving small business and nonprofit organizations in the Carolinas."
