Vales Offers Employee Relations Insights to Nonprofit Organizations

Jill M. Vales, President of JMV Management Services, recently provided human resources management training to more than 45 executive directors who were members of the Greenville Nonprofit Alliance. Vales presented “10 Ideas for Improving Employee Relations” through a program that was hosted by the Greater Greenville Chamber of Commerce and the Commerce Club. During the training, she emphasized that many of the ideas, including offering flexibility to employees and improving communications at all levels, could be implemented at little or no cost to organizations.

JMV Management provides on demand human resources and finance management services to small business and nonprofit organizations. For more information, contact Vales at 864-363-7921.
