Vales Presents to Faculty and University Students

Jill M. Vales, President of JMV Management Services, recently conducted the workshop, “The Five Keys to Being a Professional,” to the faculty of Prince of Peace School. Vales also made a presentation to students taking an Executive Leadership and Entrepreneurship course at Clemson University. The Clemson presentation highlighted Vales’ own path to entrepreneurship -- from her first career at a Big-Four international CPA firm, to senior level corporate human resources and financial management positions, to the founding and growth of JMV Management, which is now in its third year of operations.

JMV Management provides on demand human resources and finance management services to small business and nonprofit organizations. For more information, contact Vales at 864-527-0490.
