JMV Management begins providing small business services

Jill M. Vales announces the opening of JMV Management Services, which provides financial and human resources senior-level management services to small businesses.

Vales, President of JMV Management, has more than 25 years of senior management experience in finance, accounting, human resources and operations. She has served in these synergistic roles within entrepreneurial businesses as well as leading technology and travel distribution companies. Prior to beginning JMV Management, Vales was Vice President of Human Resources with ScanSource, Inc., an international distributor of specialty technology products. She also has been an executive with national travel distribution companies, including being CFO of a start-up company that completed an IPO and acquired 20 entrepreneurial companies in less than two years.

Vales began her CPA career as an auditor with a “Big-Four” accounting firm and served clients in several industries including services, manufacturing, real estate and government.

She currently is on the Greater Greenville Chamber of Commerce Board of Governors and is chairperson of its HR Leadership Forum.
