JMV Management Adds Not-for-Profit to Client List

JMV Management Services has been engaged by Donate Life South Carolina to provide a variety of human resources and financial management services. The agency is dedicated to promoting organ and tissue donation throughout South Carolina and to providing assistance to transplant patients and their families. JMV Management will review the agency's employee handbook and develop job descriptions, a performance management process and a salary administration system. JMV Management will also assist the agency to develop its formal annual operating budget as well as a financial reporting model.

For more information, contact Jill Vales, President of JMV Management, at 864-527-0490.
