The site features finance, human resources and corporate services provided--along with a Resource Center, which includes a comprehensive directory of useful Web sites for small businesses as well as a learning center.

To celebrate the launch, JMV Management is offering those who visit the site and register a chance to win four box seat tickets to a Greenville Drive baseball game of choice and a "Picnic in the Park." Deadline to enter is June 30, 2006, and the winner will be randomly selected in early July.
