Vales Provides Educational Presentations to Business Community

Jill M. Vales, president of JMV Management Services, recently provided two educational presentations to members of Greenville's business community through the Greater Greenville Chamber of Commerce and Greenville Technical College.

Vales participated in a panel discussion on performance management for the Chamber of Commerce's Human Resources Leadership Forum, providing insights on a performance management model and corrective action process. Vales also recently taught a full-day program on legal issues to area supervisors and managers through Greenville Technical College.

JMV Management provides senior-level human resources and financial management services to small businesses.
